Please note that discounts and waivers for publishing Open Access, including those negotiated by your institution as part of a read and publish agreement, can be entered at this stage. More information on waivers and discounts can be found here: <https://www.cambridge.org/oa-waivers-and-discounts>

2. Read the “Open Access Articles” section and fill in the the APA forms.

Open Access Articles

So that we have the necessary rights to publish your article, we ask you to grant a non-exclusive licence to publish. (We do not ask you to transfer your copyright to us.) A non-exclusive licence means that the rights needed to publish the paper are granted to the journal owner on a non-exclusive basis and the ownership of the copyright remains unchanged. Select the correct form from the choice of two in the table below.

In open access there is a fundamental principle that content should not only be accessible but also be freely reusable for the good of research and humanity. We comply with this principle by asking you to select, within your form, a Creative Commons licence. The CC licence you choose will determine how readers can use your article.

Who are you and who owns the copyright?	Correct Forms	Who Signs?
I am the sole author and I own the copyright in the article OR I am one of two or more authors and we jointly own the copyright in the article		One author
I am the sole author and my employer (government or non-government) owns the copyright in the article OR I am one of two or more authors and one or more of our employers (government or non-government) jointly own the copyright in the article		Each author and each employer

3. In the APA form, choose Creative Commons License (“CC BY” is usually chosen). After completing the form, reply the acceptance email.
