One congressman, who spoke on condition of anonymity to avoid retribution from leaders, bristled at how aggressively he was being pressured to vote for the bill.

Part II: Writing (50%)

Select any ONE of the following public figures and, developing from the provided quote, proceed to write a 150-200 word interview in English, composing at least five coherent and relevant questions without having to venture the answers. The form can be either prose narrative (Ex. I'd like to ask him/her about...) or simply point-by-point questions (Ex. Could you please tell us about...). Make sure you state clearly the name of the interviewee before beginning (Ex. No 6. Obama).

1. Rupert Murdoch: (concerning the so-called liberal bias of the press) "Well, except for ABC, CBS, NBC, MSNBC, CNN, New York Times, the Washington Post, and about another 100 newspapers, I find little evidence of liberal bias in the media."
2. Toni Morrison: "I was eager for information, yet suspicious of the package in which that information would be wrapped."
3. David Ho: "It's the virus, stupid."
4. Steve Jobs: "Design is not just what it looks like and feels like. Design is how it works."
